

Neville Ferrier

Mayor, Banana Shire Council

Executive Member – Regional Development Australia Fitzroy & Central West

Neville grew up on a farm at Capella until 12 years of age. He then moved with his family to Dululu, where he still resides today.

At 19 Neville purchased his first truck, he owned and operated a transport business in the Central Queensland region for over 30 years. During this time he also ran his families store, and cattle farm.

In 2003, Neville and his wife purchased the Dululu Hotel and ran the establishment for five years before selling.

Neville was first elected to Banana Shire Council in 2004, and was re-elected in 2008 and 2012. In the 2016 election he was successfully elected as Mayor.

Neville represents Banana Shire Council on many community committees and associations, as well as being an active member on a large number of local community organisations.
